Effective Pitching.

The Ball Game Yesterday. The spectators that assembled on the National grounds yesterday afternoon were amply repaid for their visit, for it was one of the finest exhibitions of fielding that has been seen here exhibitions of fielding that has been seen here this season. The home club proved the strongest at the bat, and it was only owing to the deep out-field played by their opponents that many of the long flies were captured and esesped becoming two or three base hits. The Baltimores failed to get the hang of Lynch's pitching, and so effective did it prova that not a base-hit was mide on him during the entire lar priors, quality considered. Our coffees are all was made on him during the entire game, and the few errors committed were unproductive of runs. The players all fielded well, and it would be partial to particularize.

There has been more or less excitement at the White House the few days past in con-sequence of the favorite row at that estab-liahment giving birth on Welnesday last—the lishment giving birth on Welnesday Inst—the day of the boat race—to a fine pair of calves, the one white and brown spotted, the other brown all over from head to beels. The twins are exceedingly active and playful, and the mother is evidently proud of her progeny—Old Mother Brindle viewed the race,

And at its close with asidened face
Shook her bend and walks! away,
As though 'twee serry work this day,
She whisked her tail and hid her down,
And soon brought forth a pair to town:
Well done! excisimed Marquis of Lerne,
But better done was the rear thus born.
